

CURRICULUM VITAE

Jeffrey STARK

Opiang A #1203 Gyeongin-ro 611
Namdong-gu
Incheon 21507
SOUTH KOREA

Tel: (+82) 10-4116-0825
(in Korea, 010-4116-0825)
Email: jeffrey.stark@gmail.com

EDUCATION

2015-present Ph.D. student, Sociology, Yonsei University
2004-present Ph.D. candidate, Socio-cultural Anthropology, University of Toronto (in progress.
Expected completion: 2016)
2004 M.A. Collaborative Program, Anthropology and Asia-Pacific Studies, University of Toronto
2002 B.A. First Class Joint Honours, Anthropology and East Asian Studies, McGill
University

- 2000-2001 Exchange student, Yonsei University, Seoul
- 1998-1999 Concordia University, Sociology & Anthropology

AWARDS AND FELLOWSHIPS

Yonsei University

2015-2016 Outstanding International Student Scholarship

University of Toronto

2006-2007 Korea Foundation Field Research Fellowship
2005-2006 University of Toronto Fellowship
2002-2005 Junior Fellow, Massey College, University of Toronto
2004-2005 Ontario Graduate Scholarship (OGS)
2004 Dr. David S. Chu Scholarship
2003 University of Toronto Fellowship
2003 Dr. David S. Chu Scholarship
2003 Dr. David S. Chu Travel Grant
2002 University of Toronto Fellowship

McGill University

2002 Dean's List
2000 McConnell Award, Dean's List

RESEARCH INTERESTS

Social justice (human rights, transitional justice, etc.)
Social exclusion/inclusion (economic, political, gendered, etc.)
Economic anthropology/sociology
Cities (urbanism, urban space, urban life)
Geographies: NE and SE Asia

- Korean society and history (late Chosŏn Dynasty to present, in both Koreas)
- Cambodian society and history (French colonial period to present)

CONFERENCE PRESENTATIONS

- July 2006 American Anthropological Association, Society for East Asian Anthropology (SEAA) conference at the Chinese University of Hong Kong, 13-16 July 2006. Paper (with YANG Sunyoung) titled “Our Twisted Heroes: the Making and Unmaking of Public Heroes in Modern-day South Korea” (exploring the Hwang Woo-suk scandal and its broad implications)
- June 2015 Asian Studies on the Pacific Coast Conference, Association for Asian Studies (AAS) 5-7 June 2015. Paper entitled “‘Possible Selves’ in a Precarious Labour Market”

INVITED TALKS

- December 2013 “Starting your own NGO”, Busan National University, Global Studies, Busan, Korea.
- December 2013 Participant, “Doing History in the Age of Globalization”, Sungkyunkwan University, Seoul, Korea
- October 2010 Institute for Poverty Alleviation and International Development (IPAID), Yonsei University
- November 2006 Yonsei-Korea Foundation Korean Studies Forum invited lecture, tentatively titled “Poverty and Community in Korea – ‘Old’ and ‘New’?”

FIELD EXPERIENCE

- 2006 Life history interviews with Korean-Chinese (조선족), Yanbian (연변), China as member of a team from Yonsei University [1 week]
- 2005-2007, 2014 Doctoral fieldwork, Incheon and Seoul, South Korea
- 2002 Summer Korean Red Cross ‘Sakhalin Korean Welfare Centre’, Incheon, South Korea (volunteer) [4 months]
- 2000-2001 Homeless agency, Seoul, South Korea (volunteer) [11 months]

EMPLOYMENT

- 2009-2010 INSTRUCTOR, Soongsil University, Department of Social Work.
- 2007-2011 INSTRUCTOR, Yonsei University, Underwood College. Sociology & Anthropology.
- 2005 RESEARCH ASSISTANT, University of Toronto, Anthropology
- 2002-2005 TEACHING ASSISTANT, University of Toronto, Anthropology
- 2002 RESEARCH ASSISTANT, McGill University, East Asian Studies (Chinese)
- 1981-2000 Various management positions, Johnson & Johnson (Canada) Inc.

PUBLICATIONS

- 2013 “조직적 학습과 국제시민사회운동,” 성찰과 전망 제 12 호. 민주주의사회연구소 (부산).

AFFILIATIONS

American Anthropological Association (AAA)
 Association for Asian Studies (AAS)
 Alliance of Scholars Concerned About Korea (ASCK)
 Korean Sociological Association (KSA)
 Critical Sociology Association of Korea

LANGUAGES

English Native Speaker
 French Fluent (spoken, written, read)
 Khmer Beginner
 Korean Advanced (spoken, read); Intermediate (written)
 Other languages for academic purposes read: Italian, Spanish, Portuguese.